DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to the communication filed 11-7-07.

Claims 16-21 and 24-31 are pending in the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-15, 22 and 23 have been canceled by amendment and are thus withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 11-7-07.

Applicant's election without traverse of Group VII, claims 16-21, 24-31 in the reply filed on 11-7-07 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakagawa et al (USPN 5,707,987).

Nakagawa et al (USPN 5,707,987) teach aniline derivatives represented by the formula listed in claim 16, pharmaceutically acceptable salts or hydrates thereof (see esp. the abstract, col. 1-27, 189-190, claims 1-27).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 16-21 and 24-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Player et al (WO 2004/096795).

Player et al (WO 2004/096795) teach the aniline derivatives represented by the formula listed in claim 16, pharmaceutically acceptable salts and hydrates thereof, and methods to inhibit the activity of viral proteins, including those required for the viruses listed in claims 27-31 (see the text and structures I-III in the abstract; pages 3-17, Table I, pages 33-41, claims 1-18). The burden of establishing whether the prior art compounds have the function of inhibiting viral infections as claimed falls to applicant. See (In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195 USPQ 430, 433-434 (CCPA 1977): "Where, as here, the claimed and prior art products are identical or substantially identical, or are produced by identical or substantially identical processes, the PTO can require an applicant to prove that the prior art products do not necessarily or inherently possess the characteristics of his claimed product... Whether the rejection is based on 'inherency' under 35 USC 102, on 'prima facie obviousness' under 35 USC 103, jointly or alternatively, the burden of proof is the same, and its fairness is evidenced b the PTO's inability to manufacture products or to obtain and compare prior art products." [footnote omitted] See also MPEP 2112: "[T]he PTO can require an applicant to prove that the prior art products do not necessarily or inherently possess the characteristics of his [her] claimed product." The MPEP at 2112 citing In re Fitzgerald 205 USPQ 594, 596 (CCPA 1980), quoting In re Best 195 USPQ 430 as per above. Therefore, absent evidence to the contrary, since the compounds disclosed by Player et al meet all of the structural limitations of the instantly claimed invention, it would necessarily be presumed to have the functionality claimed, of inhibiting viral infections comprising inhibiting requisite proteins required by the viruses claimed.

Therefore, absent evidence to the contrary, claims 16-21 and 24-31 are anticipated by or, in the alternative, obvious over Player et al.
